

LOCAL NEWS.

MONDAY EVENING, JANUARY 26.

For this section slightly warmer, fair weather, with westerly winds.

PRISONING ALEXANDRIA.—Mayor E. E. Downham, Mr. F. A. Reed, president of the Board of Trade, and Col. Anderson, of the New York, where they went to confer with Mayor Gould and other officers of the city, and D. R. H. concerning this city and its relations with that road. These gentlemen had a long interview with Mr. Gould, Vice President of the R. & D. R. H. Mayor Downham spoke to him of the importance of local matters by which Alexandria is benefited with the co-operation of the city. The Mayor also spoke of the importance of the little work done here in comparison with that of some years ago. Mr. Gould replied that his company was the best of feelings toward Alexandria, and that he would do all in his power to benefit the city. He said in the removal of the road here that the importance of the working force here that the company now did not engage in building the road, but to care for the road. He said that the road now in the city was a great improvement, and that he would do all in his power to benefit the city. He said that the road now in the city was a great improvement, and that he would do all in his power to benefit the city.

FIRE—BURNED TO DEATH.—The alarm of fire at 2 o'clock this morning was caused by the burning of a small frame shanty situated on the north side of Duke street, near the S. O. bridge, and occupied by a colored man named George Holmes. Owing to the smallness of the building, the fire spread rapidly, and the house was almost entirely consumed before the arrival of the fire department. The body of the man was found in the room, and was so badly burned that it was necessary to remove it to the morgue. The cause of the fire is not yet known.

THE WEATHER.—The southeast rain which set in on Saturday evening continued till late in the night when the wind veered to the northwest and for a time blew light. The temperature fell for some time, reaching a low point of 32 degrees below zero. Later the wind shifted and rain fell, and the clouds partially cleared, the temperature moderated and much of the snow melted. In the afternoon the sun showed brightly as did also the moon at night. The storm of the early morning did not leave much snow in the city, but it is feared that much more would be on the way if the weather did not change.

POOR REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool with one prisoner and eight lodgers at the station house. The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases: One Taylor, Aaron Jackson, Alfred Ford and Olen Green, arrested for playing crap, were fined $250 each. Sam Bowling, colored, for permitting gambling on his premises, was fined $10 and Geo. Parker, Ann Norris, Brook Jackson, Rose Fuller, R. K. Jones, J. T. Burns, Ben Hughes, Chas. Bower, Wm. Green, Oliver Laxfield, Carrie Bell, Mary Williams and Bertie Jackson—all colored, for gambling in Bowling's house, were fined $250 each.

YESTERDAY.—The ground yesterday morning was covered with snow, which made walking extremely disagreeable, but under the influence of the mid temperature which followed and the rays of the sun which shone later in the day, much of the snow disappeared and by evening the sidewalks were comparatively dry. The churches had fair congregations and in the evening the usual number of people were seen on the streets. The number of visitors from Washington, however, was not so large as usual, the disagreeable walking of the morning keeping many at home. The day was a very quiet one, the police making few arrests.

RAID ON GAMBLERS.—Lieut. Smith and a squad of police officers, at an early hour yesterday morning, raided a house on the south side of King street, between Lee and Union, kept by a colored man named Samuel Bowling, and arrested Bowling and thirteen colored men and women, all of whom were engaged in playing cards for money. They were all taken to the station house and at the trial this morning Bowling was fined $10 for permitting gambling to be carried on in his premises, and the others $250 each for gambling.

PERSONAL.—Prof. Richard Wallis, of Hagerstown, Md., and Senor Alexos Santos, of Cuba, guests of Mrs. John Barrett on St. Asaph street, were among those at the assembly on Friday night.

Prof. and Mrs. Frederick Page are visiting Gen. M. D. Coles.
